TO: All NPP-USA Members.
SUBJECT: Internal Polls to Select National Party Executives
DATE: July 15, 2022

As part of the 2022 National Delegates Conference of NPP slated for Saturday, July 16th, 2022, in Accra and its elections to elect national executives to lead the party in the next four years, NPP-USA Branch, by convention, has conducted its internal poll to determine who get their delegate votes. NPP-USA has long been the barometer of electing who leads the party and has successfully chosen party national executives, and presidential candidates in its internal polls. This poll taking is based on NPP-USAs long held stands and belief in the principle of “ONE MEMBER, ONE VOTE” dubbed “OMOV” and was conducted by the Branch Elections & Research Directorate led by Bright Gyimah “LEVELS”.

In all, one hundred and thirty-two (132) members from twenty-four (24) chapters voted. The branch through the polling process reaffirmed its commitment to the belief that elections belong to the people and it's their decision.

The following contestants have therefore secured all the delegate votes of NPP-USA:

- ✓ National Chairperson – Stephen Ayesu Ntim
- ✓ National 1st Vice Chairperson – Rita Talata Asobayire
- ✓ National 2nd Vice Chairperson – Michael Omari Wadie
- ✓ National 3rd Vice Chairperson – Kingston Akomen Kissi
- ✓ National Gen. Secretary - John Boadu
- ✓ National Treasurer – Collins Nuntwiri Nuamah

- ✓ National Organizer – Henry Nana Boakye
- ✓ National Women’s Organizer - Kate Gyamfua
- ✓ National Youth Organizer – Prince Kamal Gumah
- ✓ National Nasara Coordinator – Awal Mohammed

The delegates of NPP-USA led by their Chairperson, Obaa Yaa Frimpong, the 1st and 2nd Vice Chairperson, are currently on the grounds in Accra, Ghana to participate in this important democratic process. Other delegates include Augustine Agbenaza, Branch Secretary and Mr. Emmanuel Mensah., Branch Deputy Secretary.

The annual delegates conference is the highest decision-making body of the party followed by the National Council and the National Executive Committee (NEC).

The National Annual Delegates’ Conference is being held pursuant to Article 10 of the party’s constitution, which states that the National Annual Delegates’ Conference should be held at least four weeks after the last regional delegates’ conference. In all, about 6,200 delegates are expected in Accra for the three-day event with forty-six (46) candidates contesting for ten (10) positions. The main conference would be held at the Accra Sports Stadium on Saturday, 16th July 2022. We wish all our candidates good luck, and we look forward to a great contest of ideas to move our party forward.

Thank you!
